Preface

Radiant thoughts of great men are always a guiding force for the society in the times they live. Conversely, the society takes inspiration from the thoughts of great men and walks its path accordingly. If these great men are authorities in the field of Spirituality, meaning, if they are Saints, Gurus or Parātpar Gurus, then their views are eternal, just like the spiritual knowledge in the scriptures. The Founder of Sanatan Sanstha is a Saint of the Parātpar Guru (See Glossary) level. The treasure of Holy texts compiled by Him on subjects such as Spirituality, Spiritual practice, Daily conducts etc. are not only useful for the students of Spirituality but also for those who perform spiritual practice according to other Paths of sāadhanā (Spiritual practice). Since 1998, Parātpar Guru (Dr) Athavale has been putting forth radiant thoughts related to the Nation & Dharma through 'Sanatan Prabhat' Periodicals. The seed of uplifting the Nation and re-establishing Dharma lies in these thoughts, which are not only a guiding force for the patriots and the devout followers of Dharma, but also create awareness amongst common Hindus-by-birth.

Radiant thoughts selected for this Holy text are representational. If we consider all His radiant thoughts, what we have taken in this Holy text is just the tip of an iceberg. If we consider collecting all His radiant thoughts on various subjects, we will have independent Holy texts on each subject.

Some might think that His thoughts amount to a revolt against the present rulers or are revolutionary, but actually they are in support of the society, Nation, Dharma and culture. The radiant thoughts selected for this Holy text will be useful at all times, and are extremely useful for the present times too.

For establishing the 'Hindu Nation' based on Dharma, it is essential that the patriots and devout followers of Dharma enhance their Brāhmatēj (Radiance of a Brāhmaṇ ), meaning, power of spiritual practice and Kshātratēj (Radiance of a Kshatriya). From this perspective, Brāhmatēj and Kshātratēj enriched radiant thoughts of Parātpar Guru (Dr) Athavale will prove to be inspiring.

We pray at the Holy feet of God, that by taking inspiration from these radiant thoughts, may each Hindu awakens regarding Dharma and becomes active for establishing the 'Hindu Nation' based on Dharma.
