Point 3 of Introductory Contents

Preface

There are 157 Christian Nations, 52 Muslim Nations, 12 Buddhist Nations and 1 Jew Nation in the world. However, is there a 'Hindu Rashtra' at all in this Universe ? Yes, Hindus did have their own 'Sanatan Rashtra' on this earth till 1947. What is the state of that Rashtra (Nation) today ?

Democracy today and the 'Hindu Rashtra' envisaged by Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj

Democracy is defined as 'A Government of the people, by the people and for the people'. For India, the largest Democracy in the world, it has changed to 'A Government of the selfish (rulers), elected by the selfish (people) for the selfish (motives)'. This Text elaborates many problems that India faces today. After reading these, some may wonder how will it happen in the 'Hindu Rashtra' ? Has such a thing ever happened in history ? The answer is - Yes ! When Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj established the 'Hindavi Swarajya' (or 'Hindu Rashtra'), similar problems at that time were eliminated immediately. Like today, Hindu women were not safe before Shivaji Maharaj was born. Even Jijabai's (Shivaji Maharaj's mother) sister-in-law was kidnapped by a Muslim chieftain. Temples were being demolished and no one could predict when and where cows would be slaughtered. Temple demolition stopped immediately when Shivaji Maharaj established the 'Hindu Rashtra'. Moreover, temples that had been demolished and mosques built in their places, were reconverted to temples. Cows too lived without fear. No signature campaign was undertaken to stop cow-slaughter, nor did Shivaji Maharaj introduce any 'Anti cow-slaughter Bill' before his council of Ministers ! Merely establishing the 'Hindu Rashtra' was enough for the anti-Hindus to be petrified.

Today, all of us suffer because of inflation. Have we ever heard that citizens were beset by inflation during Shivaji Maharaja's Rule ? Politicians, who shout slogans of 'Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan (Victory to the soldier, victory to the farmer)' are allowing soldiers as well as farmers to die. Shivaji Maharaj valued not only life of each farmer, but also what he produced. 'Do not harm even a stalk of the vegetables grown by farmers' - these were his instructions. Like the life of a farmer, he also valued the life of a soldier. He not only honoured soldiers wounded on the battlefield, he rewarded them with gold ornaments. In 2010, 'Adarsh Housing Society' was built for the widows of Kargil war martyrs; however, not a single widow got a flat in this society. All the flats were snatched by the corrupt. In contrast, when Tanaji (a military General) was killed during the Sinhagad battle, Shivaji Maharaj not only took care of his family, but also arranged for his son's marriage.

External problems faced by India will also be resolved in the 'Hindu Rashtra'

Just as internal problems, external problems India faces too will be resolved in the 'Hindu Rashtra'. Foremost among the external problems for India is the threat of war with Pakistan and China. A similar situation existed during Shivaji Maharaj's time. Aurangzeb was keen on swallowing Shivaji Maharaj's small kingdom. However, he was terrified by the news of ceremonious establishment of the 'Hindu Rashtra' with the coronation ceremony of Shivaji Maharaj. Subsequently, during Shivaji Maharaj entire life, Aurangzeb did not dare to approach Maharashtra as well as South India. Once the 'Hindu Rashtra' is established, no country will dare harm us.

What will happen to Muslims in the 'Hindu Rashtra' ?

Whenever the subject of 'Hindu Rashtra' arises, the so-called secularists ask a useless question - 'What will be the fate of Muslims in the 'Hindu Rashtra' ?' Actually, Muslims should have been disturbed by this question; however, they are not. They keep announcing, 'We took over Pakistan with a smile, we shall take over Hindustan through force'. Of course, this question too has an apt answer. In the forthcoming 'Hindu Rashtra', not just the Muslims, but every sect will be treated the same way as they were treated during Shivaji's rule. With the rising of the sun, darkness and foul odour are automatically dispelled. No one tells darkness or foul odour that the sun is rising, so dissolve. Similarly, darkness and foul odour in the form of various problems, will be eliminated immediately with the advent of the 'Hindu Rashtra'. All problems that India faces currently will be solved by the pious rulers, and all citizens will become happy because of righteous conduct.

Instead of taking up issues individually, establishing the 'Hindu Rashtra' is essential

The process of establishing the 'Hindu Rashtra' for the welfare of not just Indians but the entire mankind, will certainly not be automatic. Pandavs asked for just five villages; yet, they did not get them easily. What we wish for is an undivided 'Hindu Rashtra' - extending from Kashmir in the North to Kanyakumari in the South. It will definitely be at the cost of an intense battle. Instead of taking up individual issues (such as killing of cows, religious conversions, pollution of the Holy River Ganga, Kashmir, Shriram Temple, protecting the mother-tongue, etc.) separately, if people and organisations who have a similar goal take up the task of establishing the 'Hindu Rashtra' as their collective goal, this battle will be comparatively easier.

We pray unto the Holy feet of Shri Guru - May Hindus obtain physical, mental, intellectual and spiritual strength for this mission as envisaged by the great philosophers in Hindu Dharma such as Swami Vivekanand, Yogi Arvind, Swatantryaveer Savarkar. - Compilers
