卐 ————— Preface ————— 卐

If an individual, who has genuine devotion towards the Deity, has darshan (The act of beholding a Deity, especially in a physical image form) in the temple in any manner, he will still experience the grace of the Deity; however, normally people who visit the temple do not have such devotion. Hence, such people need to have darshan of the Deity in the temple, in a spiritually appropriate manner. In this Spiritual text not only is the appropriate method given, but also the subtle spiritual science underlying it is mentioned. Due to this, the faith in such methods of worship and in the underlying spiritual science increases. Any spiritual action performed with faith always gives better results. With this perspective in mind, we pray at the Holy feet of Shrī Guru - ‘May all devotees benefit to the maximum extent through this Spiritual text’. - Compiler

The reason for prefixing spiritual titles before the Names of Mrs Binda Singbal and Mrs Anjali Gadgil, who are the spiritual successors to Paratpar Guru (Dr) Athavale

Saptarshis guide Sanatan Sanstha through the medium of Nadipattis reading (Nadi-astrology). On 13.5.2020, Saptarshis said - ‘Henceforth, you must address Sadguru (Mrs) Binda Singbal as Shrisatshakti (Mrs) Binda Singbal and Sadguru (Mrs) Anjali Gadgil as Shrichitshakti (Mrs) Anjali Gadgil. It is because through these Names they will obtain the Goddess Principle; so also, those who address them in this way will benefit’. About addressing them in this way, Paratpar Guru (Dr) Athavale said, “Shrisatshakti is associated with God’s eternal form; whereas, Shrichitshakti is associated with God’s universal knowledge”. Hence, we have begun addressing both of them accordingly.
